Nearly every town, city and village in the state has been passing through communciations, and there hasn't been a thing to mar the pleasures of the occasions.

The young lads of the village have organized a brass band and expect soon to let the tones of their instruments be heard on the streets. Lowell Monroe is their instructor.

C. A. Wells' cigar gift enterprise still continues. He is getting rid of the tickets very fast. Drop in and buy a cigar, get your money's worth, and have a chance in the drawing.

And now the citizens of all the cities are kicking because they think that the census enumerators are leaving out many that should be on their lists, thereby depriving them of a proper rating in population.

Marshall Stonehouse warned a few of the young lads, who were in bathing the other day, that if they continued the practice without wearing suits he would bring them up before a justice. The nuisance has been stopped.

The fourth quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held in this town on Saturday and Sunday, July 19 and 20. A business meeting will be held at 10:30 Saturday morning. Rev. J. Horton, presiding elder, will preach Sunday evening.

Wednesday one of the F. & P. M. R. Co's. locomotives run over a three-weeks-old colt belonging to Fred Spring mangling its tail in such a manner that J. B. Stevens, V. S., was obliged to amputate about five inches of it. The colt is doing nicely.

Geo. and Will Raymond have been at North Branch papering and decorating the interior of Jas. Finnigan's hotel. This week they have been engaged repapering the Gamble House at Brown City. The boys do good work and are reasonable in their charges.

Peter F. Hickey was at Almont the past week assisting Fred P. Currier, Jr., to remove the machinery lately purchased by Mr. Currier over to this place. The outfit arrived here Monday and was placed in the new building near S. O. Welch & Son's mill.

A team hitched to one of the Empire mowers handled by Wm. Strong became frightened at the noise of the machine and got away from the driver, running about two miles. The machine that can stand such a test without any breakage is a good one.

At the regular review of Yale tent, K. O. T. M. Tuesday evening, E. F. Law was elected delegate to the great camp to be held in Bay City sometime in August. The tent has made a good selection. There was a large turnout of members and visiting brethren.

Daniel Foley, one of the solid men of Emmet township, was in the village Saturday last and made the Exposition office a pleasant and profitable call. Mr. Foley is the proprietor of Maplewood stock farm and is meeting with success breeding thoroughbred stock.

The following item from the Detroit Tribune of yesterday refers to a former resident of our village: "Thomas S. Emery, a lawyer, aged 27, was arrested yesterday on a telegram saying that he was wanted in Yale for the embezzlement of $33 which he had collected for C. Andreae & Sons, of Brockway Centre."

On Saturday last while Albert Secor and D. Steiner were working on a staging at E. H. Drake's house it gave way, letting the two men fall to the ground, injuring Steiner's ankle in such a manner as to lay him up for a few days. Mr. Secor escaped with slight bruises.

On Monday last a horse attached to a buggy, and driven by James Grandy, shied at some object in the road, and horse, buggy and driver went over into the deep ditch just west of the North street bridge. With the assistance of several men, all were rescued without injury.

Blaine's famous reply to Gladstone has just been issued in pamphlet form. This is one of the ablest presentations of the benefits of Protection yet published, and should be widely read. Send for a copy to the American Protective Tariff League, 23 West Twenty-third Street, New York, including a two-cent stamp.

H. H. Holden and family, of North Branch, Frank Holden and wife, of Imlay City, and Dr. Hiram Holden and wife, of Trenton, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. At the closing exercises of the Union school last Friday all the teachers were recipients of handsome presents from their pupils. Miss Roy received a beautiful ring with a moonstone setting besides other presents. After the presentations, pupils and teachers, and many of the parents, proceeded to J. B. Francis' grove where a pleasant time was enjoyed by all till nearly dark.

J. H. Petrie, the late principal of the Union schools in this village, left for Chicago last Monday morning, and at the depot was met by all his pupils who wished to say good-by to him. Mr. Petrie won a warm place in the hearts of the scholars by his kindness to them as well as his many sterling qualities, and the parting between them was very affecting. During his stay in Yale he has made hosts of friends who will be glad to hear of his success in his new field of labor.

The suit of Mrs. McDonald, of Yale, against Weter, Fanning & Co., of this place, which was to have been tried on the 29th, and which was adjourned, will be tried to-day. It will be remembered that W. F. & Co. purchased a load of eggs of the husband of Mrs. McDonald, and the money was garnished. The woman sets up the claim that the eggs belonged to her.—Richmond Review.

Austin Lutz, who has occupied the position of clerk in the postoffice for the past three years, severed his connection July 1st. He is now assisting C. R. Holden in the bank. Austin performed his duties in the postoffice in a concise and business like manner and won the esteem of the public by his courteous and impartial conduct. Whatever position he may occupy we can safely say he will fill it honorably and satisfactorily.

In reporting the case of the people vs. Chas. and Jeff Vanorman last week we stated that the defendants were fined $5 and costs, amounting to $15 in all. Justice Merrill wishes us to correct the statement which we willingly do. The case was settled between the parties, Jeff and Chas. Vanorman paying the costs which were $10 and giving Arthur Vanorman $5 in payment for the black eye they gave him.

The Crosswell base ball team were to play here to-day, but, dreading a repetition of their last experience with the Yale boys, they "flunked." A telephone message was received from them yesterday stating that they heard our team had engaged a Saginaw battery for the occasion, but the Crosswellites know they are only a picnic for the "Hustlers," and availed themselves of the above excuse to "crawlish."

Rev. S. N. Hill closed his pastoral work in the Presbyterian congregations of this place and Brockway last Saturday, and has returned to his home in Vassar. During the year he has passed here he has done good work and made many friends. Seven new members were received into the Brockway church recently, and a new organ and hymn books purchased, besides raising over $300 for all purposes. Mr. Hill has been engaged in this work for many years, and having passed his three-score-and-ten years will take a well earned rest.

Sam Morgan, A. E. Jackson, John Richardson, A. J. Ward, Frank Parker, John Crawford, Will Menerey, George Nicholson, Peter Hickey and Mrs. Wm. Barrett were subpoenaed as witnesses in the case of the People vs. Peter Pyne for assault and battery and selling liquor without a license at Port Huron Monday last. In the former case the people were beaten which was expected from the queer testimony given. The latter case has been continued over until July 12. In the meantime Pyne has promised to pay his full license and settle the case.

The funeral of John Stella who died Monday last was held from the house Wednesday afternoon to Brockway cemetery No. 2. The services were conducted by the Maccabee tent of Old Brockway of which he was a member, carrying a $1,000 policy. A large number of brethren, friends and relatives followed the remains to the grave. He leaves three grown up daughters, two of whom are married. Mrs. John Sexton and Mrs. M. Shanahan, also one son. Deceased was twice married. To his second wife and daughter he has deeded the homestead together with twenty acres of land and all personal property on the place. The balance of his property will be divided equally among his first wife's children.

Another thunder storm visited this section Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by a heavy shower. Considerable damage was done to telephone poles along the line between this place and Peck. Leonard Pratt, who was on his way to his home on the town line between Speaker and Fremont, within a short distance of his own gate, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. He was found shortly after lying in the ditch by a neighbor passing that way and conveyed to his home. Peter Bush, who is working Mrs. Billman's farm while driving along the highway with his team west of here, received a severe shock and it was some time before he recovered consciousness. His horses were both knocked down but were not injured.

A lively runaway took place on Main street Monday evening about seven o'clock. As Patrick Gleason, of Speaker, and Jas. O'Brien, of Emmet, were crossing the railroad coming south the horse they were driving became frightened at the box cars standing on the siding in front of the station and jumped to one side breaking the bolt which held the fill to the axle of the buggy. The crossbar of the fill struck the horse's heels and he became unmanageable. On reaching the corner near Russell Pressley's house the occupants of the buggy were thrown to the ground but luckily did not receive very severe injuries. The horse ran as far as John D. Grinnell's corner where it jumped the fence and was captured. No damage whatever to either horse or buggy.

On the 22nd of March last in this county, John Slack while intoxicated shot Michael Callahan and Arthur Donnelly, the wounds of Callahan resulting in death soon after the shooting. Slack was arrested and has lain in jail at Sanilac Centre until last week, when he was tried and convicted of manslaughter. Donnelly's injuries were slight and he has recovered from them. The affair has been a sad one from the start, inasmuch as Slack had always before borne a good reputation and had many friends who did not believe him capable of such a deed. The defense set up at his trial, which lasted about three days, was insanity and a strong effort was made to clear him, but proved unavailing. Sentence suspended pending an appeal to the supreme court.—Minden Herald.
